Garden Club Plans Tea

Plans for a Silver Tea to be held in November were outlined at the September meeting of the Greenthumbers Garden Club. The group met at the home of Mrs. Paul Kolleck.

Greenthumbers are a member of the California Garden Club Inc. Anyone wishing to join the club can contact the president, Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer.

A spaghetti dinner prepared by Mrs. Harry Allen was served to members. Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer, Mrs. George Horton, Mrs. Harry Allen and Mrs. John Knight.

Those attending the meeting and dinner were: Mmes. Paul Kolleck, Eldon Sellmeyer, Louis Wilhelm, Al Mategorin, Clarence Barrow, Edward Rahn, George Horton, Harry Allen, William Fitzgerald, David Sheppard, John Knight, Mrs. Maude Vulgamott, Keith Sellmeyer and Pat Huburg.

THIRD BIRTHDAY

Little Bobbie Petrat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Petrat, 2942 Opal Ave., celebrated his third birthday anniversary Friday with a party.

Neighborhood friends joining in the festivities were Jim and Roy Glass, Susan Amos, Barbara Brady, Pamela Pyron, Michael Bizzo, Patrick Shelby and David Felando.

Pre-Nuptial Whirl for Billy Pratt

The last week before her wedding next Saturday evening is filled with excitement for Miss Billy Jo Pratt, who will be married to Charles Bright.

Meeting planes on Wednesday, the future bride and her husband-to-be welcomed his brother, Bobby Wright from Sweetwater, Tenn., who arrived for the wedding and another brother, Capt. Terrance Bright from Travis Air Force Base, who will be the best man.

On Thursday the bride-elect greeted her uncle, H. W. Taylor, who flew out from Parkersburg, West Virginia, to give her in marriage in the absence of her father, Terrance R. Burns, who is with the navy in Japan.

Tomorrow evening, following rehearsal at the church, the bridal party and out-of-town guests will be entertained at a buffet at the home of Mrs. Stella DeFields, 1411 Crenshaw.

Recently Miss Pratt was the honoree at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Lucille Fairchild at her Redondo Beach home with Mrs. Edward Panek of Torrance as co-hostess.

Guests attending were Mmes. Stella DeFields, David L. Fairchild, Doris Cunningham, Ada Bailey, Ada Hyder, Golda Morrison, Sybil Eide, Donna Edmonds, Catherine Barker and Mrs. Doris Burns, mother of the bride-elect.

Others were Miss Linda Fairchild and Miss Linda DeFields.

Auxiliary to Meet Monday

Ladies' Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department will hold its monthly meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Vernon Langford with Mrs. Ted Drake as co-hostess.

There will be a report on the annual firemen's convention held recently in San Mateo. Final plans for the forthcoming Firemen's Ball, Oct. 12, at the American Legion Hall will be discussed.

In addition a committee for the nomination of new officers will be appointed.

Gala Party For Cindy

Red and white were the effective colors used for the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson last Sunday afternoon for their daughter, Cindy, who was celebrating her seventh birthday.

Red and white balloons and sucker dolls dressed in red added to the festive atmosphere.

Little girls attending were given jump ropes as party favors while the boys were presented plastic guns.

Several cartoons were shown after which the red and white birthday cake was served with ice cream.

Cindy's little friends attending her party were Lori, Jerry and Tommy Witt; Leslie, Claudia and Stacey Barrington; Peggy and Rocky Post; Christine, Clifford and Donnie Norris; Sharron Bullock, Holly Sullivan, Debbie Monnie, Kathy Warne, and Bobby and Billy Tolson.

TV Notable Lauds Studio

Television star Eleanor Hempel spoke at the formal opening of the new Fred Astaire Dance Studio, 308 S. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, last Saturday.

Mrs. Hempel praised the work being done in the Fred Astaire Dance Studios with the children's Cotillions "This is a wonderful idea for training children in the art of dancing, as well as teaching them the social graces," she said.

The Cotillions are directed by Natalia Targo. Exhibitions of Calypso, Tango, Waltzes and other dances were given by dancers from the many Fred Astaire Dance Studios for the entertainment of Torrance-Redondo notables who attended the opening.

Among the Torrance residents present were Messrs. and Mmes. R. H. Moore, Robert E. Flory, James Swancoat, Robert Lewellen and Dean Stewart.

RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shepherd, 307 Beech Ave., have had as their guests for the past two weeks Mr. Shepherd's brother, Holly Shepherd and granddaughter, Jo Ann of East St. Louis, Mo. and his sister, Mrs. Bessie Shaw of El Cajon. The visitors left Wednesday for their homes.

TRAILER TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. George Hatfield and Jimmy and Mary, 26928 Buckskin Lane, Rolling Hills, returned recently from a four day trailer trip to Kings Canyon.
